<https://www.gruffalo.com>

Look closely at the example I have written (WAGOLL) and the success criteria.

I look forward to reading your descriptions of the Gruffalo!

Success Criteria

Have you described what the Gruffalo looks like?
Have you described how the Gruffalo moves?
Have you described how the Gruffalo might be feeling?
Have you described what the Gruffalo might sound like?
Have you included interesting adjectives?
Have you remembered full stops?
Have you remembered capital letters?
Can you include interesting vocabulary?

Use 'think it, say it, write it, read it' when writing and remember to check that your sentences make sense – you could ask someone at home to listen to/read your work. Remember to use a dictionary or the internet to check your spellings.

The Gruffalo

Scarily, the Gruffalo has two large, curved horns at the top of his head. Strangely, he has bright orange eyes and a slimy, black tongue. On the end of his wet nose, he has an enormous, poisonous wart. Running all down his back are sharp pointed prickles. His claws are as sharp as razors but his teeth are blunt and brittle. His fur feels as soft as a cotton wool but it is matted and tangled. He has knobbly knees and turned out toes. His feet are gigantic and he stomps through the forest whilst swishing his long bushy tail. The animals are scared of him because he is so terrifyingly large.
