Benwick Briefing 15/11/2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

Message from Mrs Talbot:

We started the week with a beautiful Remembrance assembly led by Swans class who demonstrated all of our school values, well done Swans and thank you to those of you who were able to attend. The children completed some beautiful poppy art work across the school to extend this learning in their classrooms and Robins held their own act of Remembrance in their classroom with activities and a minute of silence.

Well-done to our school council and Ms Millican who organised our Children In Need activities today, we raised £104.40 for this wonderful charity.

Our TT Rockstars battles have continued and in our school battle, Owls have won the battle, well done! It has been National Maths week this week and children have enjoyed additional maths challenges in their classes, however Mrs Edmond organised a whole school estimation challenge to estimate the sweets in the jar. Each class has 3 chances of estimating correctly and the class who wins will share the sweets between them.

The winner of class of the week is Doves for a consistently hard working positive week.

Have a lovely weekend,
Best wishes
Mrs Talbot - Headteacher

TT Rockstars

A big thank you to all the children that took part in 'England Rocks' we can officially say that 'Benwick Rocks!' Although we didn't win out of 4,493 schools that took part we came 728th which we think is amazing!

In our 'Battle of the Bands'

- 1st place Owls
- 2nd place Swans
- 3rd place Robins
- 4th place Doves

Well done everyone, an amazing effort.
Mrs Edmond
Maths Lead

Road Safety

Attached is the 'way to go' newsletter from Road Safety Education Team at Cambridgeshire County Council. In school our Junior Travel Ambassadors have been working hard on their 'Be Safe Be Seen' campaign and have been judging the wonderful artwork children have produced for the competition. It is Road safety week 17th-23rd November and our JTA's will be presenting the competition winners in a special assembly they are hosting on Monday 18th November.

Have a lovely weekend.

Kind Regards
Mrs Rachael Barton
School Secretary
